

NPGA ELECTION COORDINATOR REPORT

January 2012

The nominations for 2012 Board Members went smoothly enough. It was an interesting election for sure.

The only money spent was for postage to send some paperwork to the main office. I did not request reimbursement for that expense. No other expense is expected for 2012 and $10 would probably more than take care of that.

I extend a welcome to all the new Board Members and hope they serve NPGA well.

At this time I am resigning from my duties as Election Coordinator. I have enjoyed the last three years in that position, but now I am on the 2012 National Convention committee and find that I am extremely busy with those duties and will not have time to give the EC position the attention that it will require.
